February is behind us, but not without some bright spots along the way. Shrove Tuesday was a joyful success—full plates, happy hearts, and wonderful fellowship. The Winter Cabaret was another highlight, showcasing the gifts and talent in our community. We also celebrated a sweet baby sprinkle for Sophia and Fr. Jesse as they prepare to welcome their newest little blessing! As for the snow, February clearly misunderstood the phrase “let it go.” We appreciate the enthusiasm—but we’re ready for a new refrain and, hopefully, a little green to replace all that white.
