Issue No. 6 | November 30, 2025

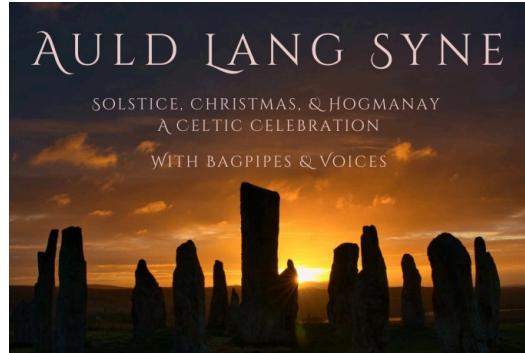

Page 1

Thank you for checking out our November issue! As our liturgical year comes to a close, we begin a new year with a season of fasting and anticipation of the incarnation festival of our Lord. Please read below for December happenings and upcoming special Masses and events. God bless! ❤️

Auld Lang Syne - December 14th

New Winter, an Ohio based Celtic group, will be presenting a beautiful afternoon concert of Bagpipes & Voices. This quartet of Celtic musicians weaves the music of the Solstice, Christmas, and Hogmanay (the Scottish New Year) into an ethereal and charming program to create a truly unique concert experience. You'll hear a blend of Scottish smallpipes, vocals, and spoken word evoking the winter cold, an old-time Christmas morning, and a joyous New Year's celebration. Tickets reserved in advance via our online Ticket Form will be $20 or tickets purchased at the door will be $25. Address is 219 Philadelphia Blvd, Sea Girt, NJ, 08750.

Quiet Day - December 6 from 9:00am - 3:30pm

Brother Steven, a monk from the Society of St. John the Evangelist, will conduct the Quiet Day with addresses to the group. In between the addresses we will make use of the time to read a spiritual book, pray/meditate in church, go for a short walk outside (weather permitting), make use of the Sacrament of Confession with Father Jesse, or arrange to speak with the Quiet Day Conductor. A light breakfast, lunch, and tea will be served.
